

Volunteer Board Opportunity

Organization

Community Living Ajax-Pickering and Whitby (CLAPW) is a not for profit organization and transfer payment agency of the Ministry of Children, Community and Social Services. CLAPW is dedicated to supporting people with developmental disabilities so they can live full lives and be effectively, safely and inclusively supported in their own communities. We serve that mission by offering a broad range of personalized supports and services, closely aligned with their individual goals and choice of where they want to live, learn, work, and enjoy their leisure time. Each year we help approximately 300 individuals and their families through a variety of services and employ approximately 150 staff members.

Board Opportunity

We are seeking a new volunteer Board member to join our ten-member Board of Directors. The Board meets monthly in person at our Ajax office. Preference will be given to interested parties with a strong background in one of the following areas:

- Law
- Community Policing
- Real Estate
- Community and Social Services

Board members are responsible for the governance and the overall performance of the Corporation. The Board, working with the Executive Director, plays an integral role in helping people with developmental disabilities supported by the Corporation to live the most fulfilling lives possible.

Eligibility Criteria:

To be eligible, potential Board members must reside or work in Durham Region, or have a family member supported by the Corporation. Board membership is for a three-year term which is renewable for one additional three-year term. Successful candidates will be asked to complete a police reference check for the Vulnerable Sector, in addition to submitting a resume and providing references.
